General Hiring Criteria We select our participants each year from among many highly qualified candidates. High academic achievement, extra-curricular activities (Law Review, Moot Court, other journals), initiative and strong motivation are the criteria we consider. We also look for other indicators of likely success such as demonstrated leadership skills, strong interpersonal skills, good judgment, willingness to assume responsibility, maturity, non-academic experience, and the ability to work well with others.

Organization Narrative

Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP is a leading global law firm with 20 offices and more than 900 lawyers and advisors in the United States, Asia, Europe and the Middle East. Our legal work is varied and interesting and offers exciting and challenging opportunities to practice law in one of the world's largest law firms. Our firm was founded in Dallas in 1945 by Richard A. Gump and Robert S. Strauss and is defined by five core values: collegiality, commitment, excellence, integrity and intensity. These values characterize the qualities we seek in attorneys and the philosophy of Akin Gump as a whole. Akin Gump has also maintained a longstanding commitment to diversity and inclusiveness at all levels.

Akin Gump founded its Los Angeles office in Century City with seven lawyers in August 1997 to accommodate the firm's global growth and has grown to almost 80 lawyers today. We strive to cultivate a high quality, professional environment with the informal and congenial atmosphere that has characterized the firm since its inception.

The Los Angeles office is strongly committed to attracting top lawyers who practice in the areas of business and labor litigation, appellate litigation, complex civil litigation, corporate law, finance and securities, mergers and acquisitions, financial restructuring, renewable energy, project finance, tax, real estate transactions, and entertainment. Our lawyers work on some of the most interesting, challenging and sophisticated cases and transactions in the world. Our lawyers are provided the opportunity to obtain significant responsibility and client contact early in their careers. New associates are assigned to a practice group and work on a variety of projects with experienced lawyers. By working in a group setting, our associates receive supervision and training with constructive feedback and evaluations.

The Los Angeles office's summer program is designed to give law students a realistic and meaningful picture of life at our law firm. We provide law students with the opportunity to work in each practice area and encourage students to attend court hearings, depositions, transaction negotiations and closings, and client meetings as well as training programs and an array of exciting social events. We provide our law students with critical review of their work product and guidance throughout the summer. Our goal is to make offers of employment to summer associates who demonstrate the ability to practice law at the level required by our firm.

Akin Gump is dedicated to the professional growth and development of its associates. The firm has instituted a firmwide compensation and bonus structure that is an integral part of Akin Gump's strategy to recruit, develop, support and reward our associates. This structure includes our counsel position, which recognizes the increased responsibility that our associates take on at their sixth year of practice.

It is part of our established culture at Akin Gump that attorneys are involved in firm life. Associates and counsel participate in firm committees in each of our offices, including associates committees, inclusion councils, firm resource groups, hiring committees and pro bono committees. In addition, a group of associates and counsel representing all offices and associate class years serves on the firmwide Chairperson's Associates Committee. This group meets twice per year with the firm's chairperson to discuss relevant issues and participate in setting firm policies. We believe that the active involvement of our associates and counsel in so many areas fosters a deep commitment and connection to the firm and its members.

At Akin Gump we believe that the very best training is imparted when our lawyers handle actual matters. Ideally, all of our associates will learn best by working closely with more-senior lawyers on projects that are crucial to our clients. We also work to ensure that our lawyers are allowed to stretch their abilities in their assignments as early as possible.

Akin Gump's professional development program is anchored by four core competencies – ownership, professional excellence, service and teamwork, and client focus. The firm offers a comprehensive formal training program carefully calibrated to each associate's stage of development and area of practice. Our formal training complements the firm's competency framework and includes a core curriculum of skills and practice-specific training. We offer courses on a wide variety of subject matters, including, among others, legal writing, corporate drafting, finance and accounting, oral communication and leadership, business development and management skills training. In addition, we offer a comprehensive advocacy curriculum complete with workshops on deposition skills, motions practice and trial advocacy. Corporate courses include programs on structuring transactions, filings, debt tender offers and corporate negotiation skills. The firm also offers four academies strategically designed to guide important transitions in a lawyer's career. These programs include the Summer Program Academy, Fall Associate Academy, Mid-Level Associate Academy (4th year associates) and New Counsel Academy.

Since its founding, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP has been committed to ensuring meaningful diversity at every level of the firm and creating a culture of inclusiveness. We believe that the various perspectives and experiences of our lawyers and staff helps us achieve exceptional results for our clients and brings important insights into all aspects of the firm. We are committed to recruiting talented law students, lawyers, and staff, investing in professional development, and partnering with clients and others to advance diversity and inclusion within the firm and across the legal profession. In order to best support our diversity and inclusion efforts, we believe that leadership commitment is essential. In addition to having Kim Koopersmith as our Chairperson, one of very few women leading a major, global law firm, the partners-in-charge of the firm's Abu Dhabi, Fort Worth, Hartford, Houston, and Moscow offices are women. The partners in charge of our two largest offices, New York and Washington, DC, are both African-American. The partner-in-charge of our Philadelphia office is Hispanic, and the partner-in-charge of our Irvine office is Asian-American. Of the 15 attorneys promoted to partner in January 2020, 53% are women. To ensure that Akin Gump's diversity and inclusion initiatives continue to thrive and expand, a dedicated and active group of attorneys lead and participate in our firmwide and local diversity and inclusion councils, as well as our formal Firmwide Resource Groups ("FRGs") which are intended to compliment the firm's efforts related to recruiting, professional development, and fostering inclusive workplaces. Current FRGs include those focused on women, working parents and caregivers, people with disabilities, and those who identify as Black, Latinx, Asian and/or LGBTQ+, and their allies.

All levels of management champion the firm's commitment and policy of encouraging associates and counsel to participate in pro bono practice as part of their on-going workload. Akin Gump's pro bono practice is led by Pro Bono Partner Steven Schulman. We recognize that attorneys, especially those less experienced, more junior lawyers, obtain valuable experience on pro bono matters. Under the firm's competency-based approach to professional development, pro bono plays an important role in further enhancing associate and counsel professional development, and the firm works to ensure that our pro bono program provides opportunities consistent with the competency model.

Akin Gump is proud of its history and growth, but above all we are proud of the professionals and support staff who have made the firm such an incredible place to practice law. To learn more, please visit our website at www.akingump.com.
